

Videcart, S.A. as manufacturer of articles and board packaging focused on the food industry an in view of the context of the organization assumes its responsibility in the following manner:

1. Consolidating Videcart as a company with a future, committed with satisfying our clients needs and developing new products and technologies. We want to achieve this objective in a way that employees and collaborators take part on this project.
2. By expressing our commitment with meeting the requirements of applicable legislation local to the countries where we develop our activity area and other requirements that could be subscribed.
3. Accepting our responsibility in the environmental protection. We develop our work using recycled materials when possible and manufacturing recycled products in order to respect the environment.
4. Preventing pollution and be continuously improving our impacts on the environment establishing periodic objectives.
5. Offering our products to the client in the best hygienic conditions so that the product packed can be safely consumed.
6. Extending and making public our environmental policy so the suppliers, clients and employees know them

Simón Roda
General Manager